

AMSEC provides end-to-end maintenance and modernization solutions for the U.S. Navy and the maritime industry. Our technical experts provide system and equipment assessment services and are uniquely complimented by experienced ship repair technicians and craftsmen, engineers and logisticians. Together, they provide one-stop shopping for all ship maintenance requirements.

AMSEC's Capabilities:

Maintenance Planning

- Maintenance planning and logistic support
- Configuration management
- Design, installation and industrial services
- Waterfront work and test control

Modernization Support

- Full-service provider on all ship classes
- HM&E, C4I, and combat systems
- Habitability upgrades
- Field engineers
- Design engineers and drafters
- Electronic technicians and master tradesmen
- Welders
- Logisticians
- Fiber and multi-pin connector technicians

Maintenance and Maintenance Support

- Auxiliary systems
- Hull and deck systems
- Watertight doors/DC systems
- Underway replenishment equipment
- Main propulsion
- Elevators and conveyors
- Electrical power and distribution systems
- Food service and laundry/dry cleaning equipment
- Aircraft landing and recovery equipment

Manufacturing, Fabrication, and Repair

- Facilities in Hampton Roads, VA; San Diego, CA; Mayport, FL; and the Pacific Northwest
- Machine shops providing full conventional capabilities
- Metal fabrication capability
- Full value repair and test facility

Quick changes and repairs, when and where you need them. Shipboard modernization projects are executed full-speed ahead.

For 30 years, AMSEC has unraveled and managed the multifaceted mysteries of shipboard maintenance and modernization projects – more than 550 of them in just the last five years – for U.S. Navy and commercial customers.

Points of Contact: Jim Merrill 757.631.2205
jim.merrill@hii-amsec.com

Ryan Norris
757.631.2239
ryan.norris@hii-amsec.com

AMSEC

A Subsidiary of Huntington Ingalls Industries

2829 Guardian Lane, Virginia Beach, VA 23452
www.amsec.com